Fire Aboard Oriskany Kills 43 Servicemen

Atlas Centaur Rocket Scores Double Ignition

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — The United States today achieved the first double ignition in space of high-powered hydrogen-fueled engines as an Atlas-Centaur rocket broke a long-time jinx.

The fiery departure of the 113-foot-tall rocket at 7:12 a.m. triggered a planned doubleheader launching here today. At 7:05 p.m. the space agency is to launch a satellite for the Communications Satellite Corp.

The Comsat satellite is to be placed in stationary orbit above the Pacific to serve as the first commercial space communications link between North America, Hawaii and Southeast Asia.

After the upper stage of the Atlas-Centaur scored the hydrogen breakthrough, it hurled a dummy model of a Surveyor spacecraft toward an empty spot deep in space which for test purposes represented the moon. This "paper moon" experiment was a rehearsal for later Surveyor lunar soft-landing missions.

The major accomplishment was controlling the frosty hydrogen, which must be kept at 423 degrees below zero Fahrenheit to remain liquid. This enabled the Centaur stage to fire itself into orbit by starting its two engines, shut them off and then re-ignite them after coasting in weightless space for 23 minutes.

Problems in taming hydrogen as a space fuel, including failures on two previous double ignition attempts, had delayed Centaur's full development about three years.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration announced success of today's test.

Injured Totals 16; Carrier Is Out Of Action

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Fire swept the U.S. aircraft carrier Oriskany off the North Vietnamese coast today, killing 43 of her officers and men, and putting the ship out of action, an American spokesman announced. Sixteen other men were injured seriously.

The fire started a few hours before President Johnson made a flying visit to the big U.S. base at Cam Ranh Bay, 180 miles northeast of Saigon. Then he flew back to Manila.

The fire broke out shortly after dawn in a locker containing flares used for night illumination and rescue work.

The flames erupted on the hangar deck, just below the flight deck, and then spread rapidly to envelope five decks, the Navy said.

Planes Destroyed

Two helicopters were destroyed by the blaze and an undisclosed number of A4E Skyhawk jet fighter-bombers were damaged.

The Navy also reported extensive damages to ceilings and bulkheads of the 42,000-ton carrier, in the Gulf of Tonkin with two other U.S. carriers to launch strikes against North Viet Nam.

The Oriskany, now on its second tour in Viet Nam waters, probably will sail to Subic Bay in the Philippines for repairs.

An official investigation of the cause of the blaze was opened immediately, the Navy announced.

The fire broke out about 7:45 a.m. and was brought under control three hours later, but small flash fires continued to erupt in various places for several hours more. A Navy spokesman said these were quickly extinguished.

The fire spread to the forward officers quarters and the catapult areas from where planes are launched. It also destroyed some of the ship's electrical circuits and the forward plane elevator.

Smoke Envelopes Interior A spokesman said that quick action by fire-fighting crews prevented rockets, bombs and fuses from detonating.

Within minutes after the fire started, the Navy said, the forward interior portion of the carrier was enveloped with intense smoke, making evacuation of the injured difficult.

Some officers were trapped in their quarters by flash fires. Several were brought to safety by search personnel.

The Navy said quick action by plane crews in moving aircraft from the catapult and forward areas of the flight deck and from the burning hangar deck prevented even greater loss.

The carrier Constellation came up to help and sent doctors, hospital corpsmen and chaplains aboard the Oriskany. The seriously injured were transferred to the Constellation.

Air Cavalrymen Rout Viet Cong

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — U.S. air cavalrymen and supporting planes routed a company of Viet Cong in a two-hour battle on the coast 110 miles northeast of Saigon Tuesday and reported 48 enemy killed and two captured.

Casualties among the cavalrymen were reported light, but a H13 observation helicopter was shot down during the engagement and its two crew members were wounded, a U.S. spokesman said.

A second helicopter — a troop transport — was knocked down by ground fire in another engagement 35 miles northwest of Saigon. The spokesman said there were no casualties among the crew or troops aboard.

Jury Still Out In Bast Case

A 12-member Circuit Court jury of 10 men and two women went to lunch today without returning verdicts on the three charges against Dr. Gilbert H. Bast, 55, of 1015 1st Ave. S.

Bast, Escanaba chiropractor, is charged with three counts of statutory rape.

The prosecution alleges he raped three daughters of a Menominee County farmer in his office, 805 Ludington St., between June and November of 1965. Dr. Bast, who testified in his own defense Monday and Tuesday, denied all of the charges.

The jury deliberations have continued about four hours since Judge Bernard H. Davidson of Negaunee sent them into the jury room Tuesday night.

The case was prosecuted by Nicholas P. Chapekis in the trial which began last Wednesday. Defense attorney was Arthur A. Neiman of Escanaba.

The girls involved in the case are now ages 13, 14 and 16. At the time of the alleged offenses they were 12, 13 and 15.

The jury deliberated about an hour and a half Tuesday night after being given the case at 7:45 p.m. by Judge Davidson. When no verdict was returned by 9:15, Judge Davidson recessed court and sent the jury home with orders not to discuss the case with anyone or read any newspaper accounts of the trial.

The judge had instructed jurors each day when court ended that if anyone attempted to question them about the case they were to be reported to the court or Delta County Sheriff C. A. Johnson.

Testimony in the case concluded about 2:30 p.m. after Prosecutor Chapekis put the three alleged victims back on the witness stand briefly for rebuttal testimony. The defense, conducted by attorney Arthur A. Neiman, rested at 3:37 p.m.

Summations Given Chapekis took about 50 minutes for his summation argument and Neiman addressed the jury for about an hour and 10 minutes before Judge Davidson called a brief recess.

Chapekis then used another 15 minutes for his closing argument.

Judge Davidson, in making his charge to the jury, explained the verdicts which could be returned in each case. He said the cases were consolidated for trial only and that the jury must return separate verdicts on each charge.

The verdicts which Judge Davidson said were possible were: 1, Guilty of statutory rape; 2, Guilty of assault with intent to commit rape; 3, Guilty of assault and battery; and 4, Not guilty.

Davidson said the defendant enters the courtroom with a presumption of innocence and that the jury must take that presumption with them into the jury room to deliberate.

"The presumption of innocence is only a presumption, however," the judge continued. "We presume men are sane, but we find that some are not; we presume men are honest, but we find that some are not; we presume men are innocent, but some are not."

People Have Burden

The judge said the burden of proof rests upon the people (the prosecution). He said the jury must be the sole judge of witnesses and the credibility of their testimony.

"In your deliberations you are limited solely to the evidence which has been admitted in this case," he told the jury.

Following Judge Davidson's charge, the jury was taken to dinner and then returned to the courtroom for final instructions before entering the juryroom for deliberations.

Timmy, Eight, Wins Award On Fake Cash Idea

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—Timothy Duncan is only 8 years old, but he has already collected a $5 reward for his efforts to thwart would-be bank robbers.

Timothy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Duncan, recently took one of a $10,000 robbery at the American National Bank on Oct. 19.

The third-grader wrote a letter to the bank owners.

"Sorry about your robbery. I had an idea the other day about how to fool crooks. Why don't you give each teller a drawer full of fake money. Then when the robber asks for money the teller can act scared and give the robber the fake money."

Philip Lichtenstein, bank president, thanked the lad Tuesday in a letter and said he was sending him a certificate for a $5 savings account as a special reward.

Nixon Calls Romney A Top GOP Leader

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Two of the Republican Party's most frequently mentioned presidential possibilities got together here Tuesday with a decided imbalance in kind words.

Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon heaped praise on Gov. George Romney of Michigan.

Soapy Berates Griffin Record

DETROIT (AP)—G. Mennen Williams charged Tuesday that if Sen. Robert P. Griffin had his way, "190,000 Michigan youngsters from low income families would be deprived of an educational opportunity they now have."

Meanwhile, in Flint, Democratic gubernatorial candidate Zoltan Ferency accused Gov. George Romney of failing to show leadership toward resolving the rash of strikes by public employees in Michigan.

Williams continued to hammer at what he said were Republican Griffin's "distortions of his record on education."

The former six-term governor said Griffin had voted as a member of the House in 1965 against the Elementary and Secondary Education Act.

And, Williams said, 190,000 Michigan school children were helped by this law.

Ferency said Romney had a "19th century attitude" toward bargaining rights of public employees. He predicted this alleged attitude will result in new and prolonged strikes.

He asserted that Romney consistently has opposed rights of public employees to gain bargaining agreements, to negotiate contracts and to strike.

Ferency said that contracts for firemen, policemen and public medical workers could be constructed to avoid any danger to the public.

Nixon got little in return in the way of praise.

And witnesses at a private meeting between the two reported that their conversation appeared strained and stayed on nonpolitical subjects.

Both have often been mentioned as possible GOP presidential nominees in 1968. Nixon ran in 1960 and lost narrowly to John F. Kennedy.

Romney and Nixon appeared together on two public platforms during the day.

Addressing some 2,000 students and townspeople at an outdoor rally at Calvin College in Grand Rapids, Nixon called Romney, "One of the top leaders of the Republican Party in the nation today."

"He earned this position through his completely remarkable political career," Nixon said, urging Michigan voters to "re-elect him by the largest margin in state history."

At his most effusive, Romney included Nixon among the "great Republicans" in his talk to the fund raising dinner.

While waiting for the start of the meeting, Nixon and Romney met in the office of college president William Spelhof.

At the dinner, Romney spoke briefly, introducing U.S. Sen. Robert Griffin, R-Mich., but left for a Kalamazoo television date long before Nixon delivered the keynote address.

Fire Department Hero Citations

Bishop Pike Requests Theological View Quiz

WHEELING, W. Va. (AP)—Episcopal Bishop James A. Pike, censured by his church's House of Bishops for "irresponsible" doctrinal statements, has asked the body for an investigation of his theological views.

Bishop Pike said he had no alternative other than to request the inquiry.

The action, which needed the support of at least two other bishops, invokes a section of canon law which allows a bishop to call for an investigation if he believes "there are in circulation rumors, reports or allegations affecting his personal or official character."

The Rt. Rev. C. Kilmer Myers, Bishop Pike's successor in the Diocese of California, and the Rt. Rev. John P. Craine, bishop of Indianapolis, signed Bishop Pike's statement.

The next step is for Presiding Bishop John E. Hines to appoint a commission of not less than three and not more than seven bishops to determine whether the charges, if proved, would constitute a canonical offense.

There is no set time for Bishop Hines to appoint this commission.

The rumors, reports and allegations Bishop Pike felt were affecting his personal or official character, included heresy charges formulated by the Rt. Rev. Henry I. Lottitt, bishop of South Florida; conclusions stated in the wording of the House of Bishops' censure, and certain charges made by the bishop of Montana, the Rt. Rev. Chandler W. Sterling.

ALTHOUGH THEY are on opposite sides of the fence in the controversy over some church doctrines, Bishop James Pike (right), resigned Episcopal Bishop of California, enjoyed a laugh with Bishop Henry I. Lottitt of South Florida during meeting of the Episcopal House of Bishops in Wheeling, W. Va. (AP Wirephoto)

Bobby Coming Saturday:Sen. Kennedy And Demos In Campaign To Escanaba

U. S. Senator Robert F. Kennedy of New York will head a Democratic campaign team to Escanaba and the Upper Peninsula in a drive for votes for Michigan Democratic candidates on Saturday, Oct. 29.

The Senator, known to millions as Bobby and the brother of the late President Kennedy, will arrive with the group by plane at the Escanaba airport at 4 p. m. Saturday and will speak at a public meeting in the gymnasium of the Area High School.

Accompanying Sen. Kennedy will be:

G. Mennen Williams, candidate for U. S. Senator from Michigan; Zolton Ferency, candidate for governor; and Raymond Clevenger, who seeks re-election as 11th District Congressman.

Speeches At Gym

They will be greeted at the airport at 4 o'clock and escorted to the High School gym, which seats approximately 2,500, where the speeches will be televised and broadcast.

The Holy Name - Escanaba Area High School football game starting time has been advanced to 1:30 o'clock so the game will be completed in time for the spectators to attend the Democratic rally.

Sen. Kennedy and the Democratic candidates will return to the airport and their departure is scheduled for 5:20 p. m.

Sen. Robert F. Kennedy

Arrangements for the reception for Sen. Kennedy in Escanaba are being made by Delta County Democratic Headquarters, and an "advance man" for the Senator will be in Escanaba tonight to supervise the program.

Sen. Kennedy won election in 1964 from New York State at the age of 39.

Nation's No. 2 Man

His political experience began at 26 when he ran John F. Kennedy's first campaign for the U. S. Senate from Massachusetts. At 30 he almost won the vice presidential nomination for his brother. At 34 he directed the campaign which made John the 35th President of the United States and then became Attorney General in his brother's Cabinet.

He was considered the second most important man in Washington during his brother's brief occupancy of the White House.

Deeply devoted to his brother, John, he emerged from the grief of President Kennedy's assassination to begin a new political career.

His admirers find in him many reminders of the late

President Kennedy: His tousled hair, Boston accent, and the gesture of chopping the air with his right hand while speaking. On the campaign trail two years ago he was hailed by admirers with an emotionalism that astonished many observers.

Fought Hoffa

Kennedy first went to Washington soon after his graduation from the University of Virginia Law School in 1951 and his admission to the Massachusetts Bar. He joined the Justice Department where he was concerned principally with prosecution of graft and income tax cases.

Later Kennedy gained national attention as chief counsel in the prosecution of charges against labor leaders Dave Beck and James R. Hoffa of the Teamsters Union.

Hoffa was sentenced to a total of 18 years in prison and appealed.

Named to the office of U. S. Attorney General, Kennedy's record touched a broad span of the nation's life—civil rights, organized crime, racketeering, immigration, labor legislation, defense of the poor, pardons, economics, juvenile delinquency, and the federal judiciary.

In Washington, Kennedy and his wife lived in McLean, Va., with their nine children.

Helping Our Children

Dr. Vernon K. Johnson of Escanaba, president of the 4,000-member Michigan State Dental Association, has announced its proposal for a comprehensive program to drastically reduce dental disease among all Michigan children.

The project is a great challenge to the state that should have the support of all persons concerned with public wellbeing. It is bold in concept and proposes to put to work the scientific knowledge of our dentists and the resources of the state in a program which could substantially change the state of health as it is affected by teeth.

In announcing the plan Dr. Johnson said that poor dental health and the resulting dental appointments are the most common cause of absenteeism in schools today. "Of all the aspects of poor dental health, tooth decay is by far the most prevalent form of dental disease in children," he said.

Any massive effort to meet this big problem faces two great obstacles. Some parents aren't concerned about the state of their children's teeth because of lack of knowledge about all the health troubles that poor teeth can start. And some lack the means for adequate dental treatment.

The easiest way to protect our children's teeth without a program of dental care that reaches to all of them and overcomes the money problem is to fluoridate the public water supplies so that chemicals which prevent tooth decay can be provided through drinking water.

"Families are being cheated out of the most effective means of decay prevention in many Michigan communities by those who attempt to block fluoridation," said Dr. Johnson. "Detroit is an example."

Essentially the fight to fluoridate is a fight against ignorance and prejudice. Some communities have more fluorides in their water supplies naturally than is introduced artificially to give decay protection, but the mistaken fight against fluoridation goes on.

Barring total fluoridation of the water supplies of Michigan, strong secondary measures are needed to fight dental disease. The MSDA program emphasizes that the responsibility for maintenance of good dental health rests primarily on the family, and MSDA believes that individual family financial resources and those of communities, with the aid of state and national agencies, where needed, are sufficient to finance the cost of the statewide program.

Families with enough means would be encouraged to provide good dental health through their own means. Underprivileged children would be cared for through programs of private and public assistance. The need of dental work is so great that full implementation of the Dental Health Care Program for all Michigan children would overload the present dental facilities, so MSDA proposed its introduction in steps, starting with three-year-olds. It would care eventually for a cumulative total of 3 million children (ages 3 through 17) each year.

MSDA deserves commendation for proposing a partnership of private practice and government aid that will attack this big health problem realistically, bringing to it the impressive resource of scientific skills of our dental profession, the resources of our great state and the good will of its great people.

Tax Hike Will Trigger Recession Says Nixon

KALAMAZOO (AP) — A federal tax increase in 1967 "will trigger a recession that will wipe out all the economic gains of the past 10 years," former Vice President Richard M. Nixon said here.

Nixon told a news conference at Western Michigan University that the Johnson Administration has "condemned itself and the nation to a tax increase in 1967."

Nixon, campaigning for Republican congressional candidate Garry Brown, said the nation's voters can choose between a tax increase and avoiding it by re-electing freshmen Democrats to Congress on one hand and "strengthening the loyal opposition on the other."

"Had the Administration faced up to its responsibilities in April or May," Nixon said, "we might have had a tax increase without danger of a recession."

"But the economy is now soft and spongy."

To fight inflation he proposed budget cuts "across the board in nonmilitary spending." The only exceptions, he said, should be in the fields of education and health.

Nixon declined to comment in detail on the conduct of the Viet Nam War. He said he did not feel it was proper to do so while President Johnson was on his Asian peace tour.

He said he agreed with the Administration's goals in Viet Nam, but he has not supported Johnson's conduct of the war. Nixon warned against what he said were the dangers of the war.

Nixon warned against what he said were the dangers of staying in Viet Nam for another five years.

"If we have a five-year war there is an immense risk of starting World War III, because by then China will have developed its nuclear capabilities," he said.

Nixon was to address Western Michigan University students before leaving for Grand Rapids, where he was to attend a Republican rally and join Gov. George Romney, Rep. Gerald Ford, R-Mich., and local candidates at a WMU fund-raising dinner.

"The Bon Voyage Party Was a Little Rough!"

Viet Nam Life Tale

By RAY CROMLEY

CAN THO, Viet Nam (NEA) — By the side of a road on the outskirts of this city there's a small primary school with two new wings.

Stand and watch and you hear children reciting in the wing on the right. It's in full use on a two-shift session since there's a sharp shortage of space because of the many children who want to go to school.

Many students drop out because they know they haven't a chance to continue past the fifth grade anyway. Because there isn't enough space and not enough teachers, the competition for getting into the sixth grade is fierce.

The other wing of the school is bare and only partly finished. No work is going on despite the need for classrooms.

Both wings were started at the same time, months back.

The wing on the right—the wing that is already finished—was self-help project. Parents took the initiative, made the plans, raised money, volunteered work, U. S. assistance provided hard-to-get materials.

The other wing was let out on government contract. It was paid for with U. S. assistance funds. The contractor stopped work. He says inflation has driven costs up so sharply he can't afford to continue work. Because it was a "government" project, it will wait until the government appropriates more money—after investigation and study. This may take some time.

A half-mile away is another school being built under government contract. It has been standing half-completed and unused for more than a year. A major building has no roof. Weeds are growing high in the classrooms.

In another hamlet, a number of miles away, there is a well that is not being used. The pump is not working because the washers are worn out. If you ask the people why they tell you: "It's the government's well. We are waiting for the government to come and fix it." The government built the well by contract. It was given to the people.

Let in another hamlet nearby, there is another well in careful repair. In this hamlet, the government did not build the well, though it helped.

The people met and voted for the well. They contributed time and donated money to help build it. They mixed the cement with voluntary labor. The government, with U. S. assistance, sent in machinery to help dig the well and materials to equip it. But it was the people's well.

"We built it," says one villager. "When it breaks down, who is there to fix it if we don't?" If you go to this hamlet and that, the story is the same. There are government schools and people's schools, government wells and people's wells.

But there is more to the story than this. The reports these villagers give you is that some time and another Viet Cong destroy schools and wells. If the reports are correct, the VC seem to destroy schools and wells the government has built. They seem to leave alone those classrooms and wells the people have constructed.

If you ask the villagers in the unmolested hamlets why this is so, they shrug their shoulders and say, as one of many did, "They know it would make the people angry."

Yet most schools and most wells have been ordered built through government contract.

Seek Big Three Computer Link

EAST LANSING (AP) — The college student of the future, while sitting before a computer, may be able to take a course from a university 100 miles away and have the material tailor-made to fit his needs.

That, at least, is the dream of Dr. Frank Marzocco, director of Michigan State University's Human Learning Research Institute.

Marzocco and other representatives of MSU, the University of Michigan and Wayne State University, are asking the state for $1,185,760 to set up a program tying the three campuses together in a computer network.

Each school would get a computer and each computer would be programmed by faculty members with the information they give in their courses.

A student at MSU who wanted to take a course offered only at Wayne wouldn't have to drive from East Lansing to Detroit. He'd just hike over to the MSU computer and plug in on the course he wanted.

A television-type screen, a projector and a computer-operated tape recorder would present the material and the student would have a keyboard on which to answer questions and evaluate the presentation.

The student's individual needs would be determined at once by evaluating his work and his comments, and the computerized material could be changed to better meet those needs, Marzocco said.

Pay-As-You-Go Tax Hike Seen

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP)—There will probably be a general tax increase next year, Chairman George H. Mahon, D-Tex., of the House Appropriations Committee, said here.

"I think there may have to be a tax increase," Mahon said in a speech prepared for the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce. "Expenditures for the war in Viet Nam will continue to mount upward, and expenditures for domestic purposes are mounting."

"Government revenues are going up too, but the increase in revenues... probably will not be sufficient to approach a pay-as-we-go situation."

The appropriations handled by Mahon's committee this year set a peacetime record—about $145 billion, including such fixtures as interest on the national debt.

He said, however, that "we can pay as we go, and we cannot at this time defend a policy which does less."

The alternative to a tax increase, Mahon said, is wage and price controls "but they are not in the offing."

"This would create far more problems and far greater inequities than a tax increase. There is absolutely no support in Washington at this time for price and wage controls," he said.

Ann Landers

You Made A Point; Others Can Be Rude

Dear Ann Landers: Recently you put down salespeople who yak on the phone and keep customers waiting. You said they were "Rude rude rude."

And now, will you say something to the rude rude rude customers who come to the store before and after hours and try to get in?

My husband and I own a small shop. Our shop opens for business at 9:00 A.M. We close at 5:30 P.M. We get down to work at about 8:30 A.M. and we need every minute to check stock, mail and open packages, make telephone calls and do countless other chores.

Yet, almost every morning some inconsiderate slob bangs on the door 20 minutes before we are supposed to open. If we don't open up they go to the back door and holler, "I know you're in there."

We have this same problem at closing. Although we have our hours posted clearly in the front window many people beat on the door and want us to open up for them.

Please tell the American public that this is rude rude rude. Thank You. — ALSO HUMAN BEINGS

Dear Human: It may be rude rude rude, but if I owned a store I wouldn't mind opening up for a customer who was a little early or a little late. It might be the best sale of the day.

Of course, I've never owned a store and I could be wrong. How about some word from more of you on the other side of the cash register?

Dear Ann Landers: This is a reply to my wife who is in the same category with "Getting Notions." She announced unashamedly that she could not remain true to me because I am "low-key, unemotional, unaffectionate and indifferent."

Will you please tell me, Ann, how can a man work up any enthusiasm for a hypocritical, sanctimonious, self-centered, detached, insensitive, erratic, twisted, stupid, unresponsive, uncommunicative, warped sullen, capricious, unpredictable, deceitful, punitive, self-righteous, obstinate woman who has never been wrong about anything in her whole life?

And don't tell me I need a doctor. What I need is a woman. — SMART BUT DUMB

Dear Smart But: You must be dumber than you are smart — or you would not have married a hypocritical, sanctimonious, self-centered, detached, insensitive, erratic, twisted, stupid, unresponsive, uncommunicative, warped, sullen, capricious, unpredictable, deceitful, punitive, self-righteous, obstinate woman who has never been wrong about anything in her whole life.

Dear Ann Landers: Sometimes your advice is so crazy that I think you are putting us on. The answer you gave to the woman whose husband divides the newspaper with her and then falls asleep under his half before she gets a chance to read it burned me up.

Why did you tell her to buy two papers? Why didn't you tell her that the creep could sleep under yesterday's paper? If he's asleep what difference does it make?

And by the way your new picture is terrible. You look like you're in jail, with all those stripes. I don't know why I'm wasting a stamp because you'll never print my letter, but I had to have my say. — HONEST

Dear Honest: I agree with you about that picture. By the time you read this letter I hope the paper is printing another one. And now about the creep sleeping under the newspaper. If the wife could catch him just before he dozes off and substitute yesterday's paper that would be a peachy solution. Thanks.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Officers Are Re-elected

Tourist Assn. Votes Reform

By JEAN WORTH
BESSEMER — The Upper Michigan Tourist Association meeting at Indianhead Mountain ski resort on Tuesday accepted recommendations of an advisory committee for reform of both UMTA and the State Tourist Council and re-elected its present officers to implement the reforms.

Recreational business representatives warned against too much reform for fear it would upset successful programs of UMTA, but the membership raised no objections to the advisory committee's statement that reforms were necessary. The advisory study grew out of mass resignation of UMTA officials last June.

The resulting audit showed the Tourist Association in financial troubles and resulted in acceptance of recommendations that its accounting practices be revised and that it pay its bills with its income to clean up its debts by February even if it means curtailing its advertising program.

Council Reform
Treasurer Tom Smith said an audit showed that UMTA has cash of $747 and liabilities of $31,413. It also reports an inventory of $25,000 worth of tourist literature, but the wage liability of $14,170 brought comment from W. H. Treloar, publisher of the Panax newspapers, that UMTA could not expect public support if it did not pay its people their wages.

The advisory committee report which was accepted urged restructuring of the State Tourist Council to give its lay members control and keep its four regional tourist association representatives, who now control it, on in only an advisory capacity. It also asked more fiscal responsibility and accounting, dropping of tourist shows activities and the phasing out of UMTA or restructuring.

ing it to bring in strong local influence like the Chambers of Commerce in the 6 regions of the U. P., which would be asked to name two directors each to a new UMTA board.

Reelect Officers
The association re-elected President Jack English, head of Indianhead Mountain, Inc., Vice President Jack Miller, Rapid River restaurant operator; Treasurer Tom Smith of Houghton, Michigan Tech faculty member, and Secretary Manager Kenneth Dorman of Houghton.

The membership rejected a proposed February deadline on reform action and left to English calling of a meeting of task forces and officers on reform.

Treasurer Tom Smith said that UMTA has had worse years and kept functioning, but that it had a mandate to get its financial house in order, even if it means curtailments that may deny it part of the state's matching funds for advertising expenditures by the state's four regional tourist agencies.

"We are all at fault for the troubles of UMTA," said Smith. "This isn't Ken Dorman's organization; it's yours. We're saying to this man: 'We're hiring you and if you raise the money you can pay yourself.' The ones who should be here—the recreation business operators—are not here."

Pass Resolutions
The tourist business operators were strongly in support of Dorman and the meeting commended him in a resolution. The Tourist Association on Monday night honored State Senator Joseph Mack (D-Ironwood) and Rep. Russell Hellman (D-Houghton) for aid to tourism.

UMTA resolved:

1. Increase in state aid to UMTA from $44,000 a year to $75,000.
2. Adding professional ski coaching to the physical education curriculum of a state university.
3. Continued improvement of Highways M-28 and US-2 in the Upper Peninsula. Earlier a proposal to oppose a limited access highway east-west across the U. P. was defeated.
4. Support of federal aid to Wisconsin to develop highways in Wisconsin to bring tourist traffic to the U. P.
5. Support of legislation clarifying the legality of township support of advertising of the advantages of the townships, as counties are now permitted to do.
6. Commendation of the Michigan Conservation Department for its aggressive fisheries development program with Coho and Kokanee salmon.
7. Commendation of the Conservation Departments of Wisconsin and Michigan and of Wisconsin Michigan Power Co. for their cooperative Menominee River Basin recreational development.
8. Urging an end to the inequity of forcing motorists to pay tolls on the Mackinac Bridge when all other Michigan highways and bridges are toll free.

Kowalski Cries 'False Figures'

LANSING (AP) — House Speaker Joseph Kowalski, D-Detroit, said today Republican challengers are using false attendance figures to accuse Democratic legislators of "excessive absences."

One Democrat reported he had been charged with 38 absences, Kowalski said, when the official House Journal showed he was present on 229 of 245 session days over the last two years—a 94 per cent attendance record.

In a letter to Democratic legislators, Kowalski added: "You might want to point out to him (your opponent) that if 'attendance' is to be the criterion for determining the outcome of this election, the Republican gubernatorial candidate is as good as defeated now."

Attached to the letter was a schedule which Kowalski said showed that Republican Gov. George Romney was absent from Michigan 85 days in 1965 and 35 days in 1966.

Occupancy Law Challenge Filed

JACKSON (AP) — This city's open occupancy law was challenged Tuesday when petitions were filed demanding a referendum.

Lawyer Robert P. Duff and real estate broker K. F. Anderson filed the petitions, bearing 3,275 signatures, with the city clerk.

The action prevents the law from going into effect as scheduled on Thursday. The Jackson City Commission adopted the ordinance Sept. 27 by a 5-3 vote, with one member abstaining.

Duff and Anderson said the ordinance violates the right of every property owner to sell to whom he chooses.

Ruppe said today that residents in the 11th District are opposed to the "rubber stamping" of spending program that are bringing the cost of living to an all-time high. He started his day with a 6 a. m. plant gate visit at Mead Corp's mill this morning.

Memory, Travel Agent Unrivaled

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — The greatest travel agent is memory. For every trip a person takes outside himself, he takes hundreds within himself. No matter how cynical or calloused by time the human heart may become, it always likes to look back to a day when it was innocent and the world seemed always in springtime. Or, it likes to recall the experiences that gave it wrinkles — for hearts, like faces, do sometimes wear wrinkles.

Asleep or awake, the mind remembers and makes endless round-trip journeys to bygone times. Memory's train is constantly calling. Let's board it now and see where it takes us. The journey is free. Just close your eyes and see if you can remember when—

Girls blushed when the drug-store cowboys on the street corner whistled and called, "Oh, you kid!"

The only women over 30 who held jobs outside the home were widows and old maids.

Every politician was afraid of the farm vote.

Most people were on a party telephone line, and some grandmas used to listen for the latest gossip while doing their evening knitting.

The first requirement of a good medicine was that it had to taste bad.

Saloons were popularly known as "poor men's clubs."

You knew you were in a home of refinement if it had a Tiffany colored glass lamp in the living room and a bowl of artificial fruit on the dining room table.

A young fellow could become nationally known by playing football well at Harvard.

In small towns, lawyers always had their offices on the second floor. So did most dentists and doctors. It made for cheap rent, and they needed the money.

Only the well-to-do ate mushrooms. Why, a body might get a toothache by mistake, and die of poisoning, for sure.

It was possible to live and die without ever having personally to fill out a single government form.

Every cemetery had a weeping willow, and an evergreen tree.

Most corporation presidents prided themselves on the fact they had been born on a farm and still knew how to milk a cow.

Middle-aged men got all the exercise they needed by cranking the family car.

The experts were sure that one-way streets would finally lick the problem of traffic tieups.

Babies got as much fun banging household pots and pans in their cribs as they now do out of playing with a $25 educational toy — and grew up just as smart.

IT WASN'T INTENDED that way but the camera angle makes it look as if Michigan Gov. George Romney is hurling a spade of dirt over Charles H. Patterson, executive vice president of the Ford Motor Co. It was all in good humor as they shared ground breaking honors at a new Ford plant in Sterling Township near Detroit. (AP Wirephoto)

Far-Flung U-M Program Noted

The University of Michigan was established 149 years ago and today it has a program that extends into all of the academic fields, plus research projects ranging from weather rockets to nuclear reactors.

The University of Michigan story was presented to the Rotary Club at its Tuesday luncheon meeting at the House of Ludington by Donald A. Morris, the University's manager of special programs.

Morris was introduced by Edgar Larche, Rotary program chairman, and the meeting was conducted by Leonard Stein, club president.

The University of Michigan has an enrollment of 36,063 of whom 52 are from Escanaba, Morris reported.

Forty-one per cent of the students at the University are in the Junior and Senior levels, indicating that many young people attend other schools—such as Bay de Noc Community College—for their first two years and then transfer to U of M. to complete their four years and attain a degree.

Schools of medicine, engineering and other professions are among the many at the University, where 191 physicians and 52 engineers were graduated last year.

Special research projects include a weather rocket research base at the tip of the Keweenaw Peninsula, studies of Great Lakes waters and their bottoms, and the development of ship designs to meet the need for larger cargoes and more economical transportation.

The Great Lakes are not navigable at all seasons of the year. Ice on the lakes stops transportation for several months in winter.

Man Fined For Removing Deer Killed By Car

William Sess, 68, of Ensign, Rte. 1, arraigned before Justice Mortier, of Gladstone on a charge of possession of a deer unlawfully taken, pleaded guilty and paid fine and costs of $25.00.

He was arrested Monday in Nahma Township after Conservation officers followed blood trail on County Road 499 to the Sess residence. The deer had been killed by an automobile but had not been reported.

Only the driver of a car killing a deer is entitled to claim the same, and the deer must not be moved from the accident scene until permission is given by an officer, the Conservation Department explained.

Newsprint Price Kicked Up Again

NEW YORK (AP) — Macmillan, Bloedel Ltd., a major western Canadian newsprint producer, has announced an increase of $3 per ton in newsprint prices for the West Coast and western Canada.

Several producers for western markets have said they will boost prices by $4 per ton effective Jan. 1.

The Macmillan, Bloedel price increase, effective next June 1, will bring newsprint prices to $137 a ton on the West Coast and $133 in western Canada.

J.V. Clyde, chairman of Macmillan, Bloedel in Vancouver, blamed wage increases.

Last Sept. 26, Crown Zellerbach Corp. of San Francisco announced its newsprint prices would go up $4 per ton to $138. Its Canadian subsidiary, Crown Zellerbach Canada Ltd., followed suit the next day.

Southwest Forest Industries Inc. of Phoenix, Ariz., said it would join in the West Coast price increases.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Federal outdoor recreation grants totaling $281,300 for three Michigan areas were announced today by Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall.

The grants come under the Land and Water Conservation Fund and are for acquisition and development of outdoor recreation facilities.

The largest grant, $220,000, goes to the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority to expand picnic facilities at lower Huron Metropark, and to develop roadways, parking areas, playgrounds and related facilities at Stony Creek Metropark, Macomb County.

A grant of $43,750 will go to the Kent County Road Commission to purchase additional land at Wabasis Park and Douglas Walker Park near Grand Rapids.

The city of Tecumseh in Lenawee County will get $17,500 for park land purchases from the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation.

FHA Loans Over $4.1 Million To Michigan Families

EAST LANSING (AP)—More than 400 Michigan families borrowed $4.18 million from the Federal Farmers Home Administration in fiscal 1966 to build or repair homes, the agency reports.

This was a 77 per cent increase over fiscal 1965, said Nyle Katz, Michigan FHA director. Of the total, $132,000 went directly to rural residents aged 62 or over for improved housing facilities.

The loans are made to applicants unable to obtain credit from private lenders at reasonable rates. Katz said. The loans are accompanied by assistance in farm and financial management.

GOP Wives Hit Campaign Trail

The wives of two of Michigan's top officers in government and candidates for election on Nov. 8 are on the campaign trail for their husbands that will bring them to Escanaba on Friday, Nov. 4.

They are Marjorie Griffin, the wife of U. S. Senator Robert Griffin; and Helen Milliken, the wife of Lieutenant Governor William Milliken.

Mrs. Griffin and Mrs. Milliken will come to Escanaba on Thursday night, according to the schedule, and will on Friday spend a busy morning (8:30 to 11 o'clock) in behalf of their candidate-husbands' return to office.

They will visit Bay de Noc Community College where they will talk to students and faculty and drop in at a family relations conference, sponsored by the College and the Upper Peninsula Chapter of the Michigan Council on Family Relations and the Human Resource Council of the Division on Strengthening the Family in Michigan.

The Family Relations session will start in the Bonifas Auditorium and then move to the St. Joseph's Church basement for group discussions.

Mrs. Griffin and Mrs. Milliken will then go to the Ruppe for Congress Headquarters to meet the public and enjoy a coffee break.

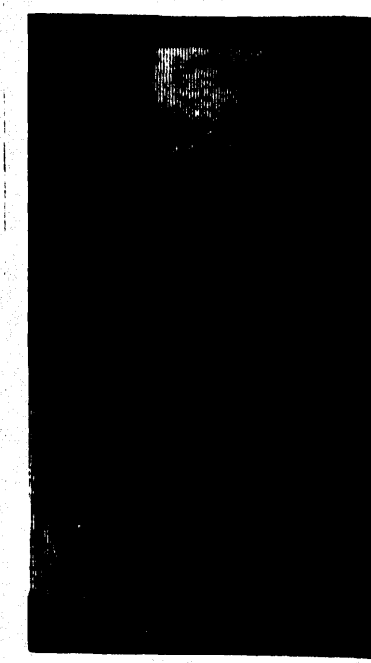

Marjorie Griffin is a native of Ludington, Mich., and met and married Bob Griffin while they were students at Central Michigan University in 1947. They have four children—aged 5 to 15.

Mrs. Griffin taught Junior High 'school in Ann Arbor while her husband earned his Doctor of Laws degree. Now as the wife of the U. S. Senator from Michigan she divides her time between diplomatic receptions in Washington, D. C., and the family home in Traverse City.

Mrs. Milliken is the former Helen Wallbank of Denver and their home is in Traverse City, where the Lieutenant Governor has long been recognized as a civic leader and businessman. The Millikens have two children, Bill Jr. and Elaine, both in college.

The candidates' wives will be in the Upper Peninsula Nov. 2, 3 and 4. They will come to Escanaba from Iron River and will go from here to Menominee.

Try To Double Potato Yields

MCBRIDE (AP) — Trying to find ways to double potato yields, Michigan State University opened a new experiment station six miles west of McBride in Montcalm County Tuesday.

MSU leased 80 acres owned by Theron Comden for the school's 12th experiment station. The last one opened was at Sodus in 1954.

The station will work on improving production efficiency in a number of cash crops—beans, wheat, corn and horticulture crops—but potatoes will receive the emphasis, since the county is the center of Michigan potato production.

"Our goal is 2,000 bushels an acre," said Dr. Richard W. Chase, an MSU crop scientist. Some growers have gone over the 1,000 mark but the state average is only about 335.

a roast, steak, or what-have-you, and he tells you the total cost, figure out how much it is costing per pound.

Then ask him to please trim off the fat, de-bone the meat, and weigh it again. Divide that into the cost of it, and you'll find out how much of the total price you were paying for bones and fat!

Most meats need a little fat, marrow and bone, but there's no object in buying a pound of them!

So, compare the prices per pound between trimmed and untrimmed meats to see which is the better buy for your money.

Dear Heloise:

I'm 11 years old. My mother had some window shades that she no longer used, and was about to throw away.

I needed something to cover my school books.

I used the good parts of the old shades to make the covers, and they turned out real nice.

Daily Press To Present Eskymo-Crusader Trophy

The Escanaba Daily Press announced today that a traveling trophy will be put into circulation for the Holy Name-Escanaba high school football series.

Ralph S. Kaziatek, general manager of the newspaper, announced that the trophy will be presented for the first time to the winner of Saturday's game between the schools.

"The trophy will be presented to the winning school and will remain in its possession until the rival school scores a victory on the football field," Kaziatek announced.

"The Daily Press is happy to become a part of the traditional football rivalry between the schools. The trophy is being put into circulation in the spirit of healthy competition which already exists between the two teams," he stated.

Approval of the trophy presentation was granted today by officials of both Holy Name and Escanaba schools.

Regardless of the outcome of Saturday's game, the season finale for both teams, Escanaba will get its name on the trophy first. The Eskymos won the first game of the series last fall by a 26-9 margin.

The football series between the two Escanaba schools, long a matter of great interest to local fans, became possible last year when the new Great Northern Conference was formed.

As both Escanaba and Holy Name were charter members of the conference, the schools automatically became football rivals. Up to that time, Escanaba was a member of the Great Lakes Conference and Holy Name played an independent schedule. Other teams in the Great Northern Conference are Menominee, Stephenson, Kingsford and Iron Mountain.

Holy Name and Escanaba also compete in other sports, meeting twice each season in basketball and facing each other in such minor sports competition as track, tennis and golf.

In addition to the honor of winning the Daily Press trophy for the first time in history, the two teams will be battling for the runnerup spot in the Great Northern final standings for the season. Menominee has clinched the 1966 championship with a perfect 5-0 record and Escanaba and Holy Name enter Saturday's clash with identical 3-1 conference marks.

Holy Name officials announced this morning that the opening kickoff will be moved up to 1:30 because of a visit by Senator Robert Kennedy in Escanaba Saturday.

Wilt's Quintet Keeps Winning

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The National Basketball Association's season is only a few weeks old but already the Philadelphia 76ers are working on a league record.

The 76ers, defending regular season Eastern Division champions, belted Baltimore Tuesday night 130-110 for their 13th straight regular-season victory. They have won four this season, which, plus a carryover streak of 11 at the end of last year, gives them 15.

The league record for most consecutive victories is 17 set by the old Washington team in 1946 and equaled by the Boston Celtics in 1960.

Tuesday night's game with Baltimore might be placed in the laughter category. Led by big Wilt Chamberlain, devastating as always inside, and the sharp outside-shooting Hal Greer, the 76ers virtually toyed with the winless Bullets, who dropped their fifth straight.

Chamberlain easily controlled the backboards with 22 rebounds and scored 20 points. Greer collected 21, including a crowd-pleaser just short of half court as the horn sounded the end of the third period.

The Philadelphia - Baltimore game was the only action in the NBA Tuesday night but there are two games tonight with Cincinnati at Baltimore and New York at Los Angeles.

SMU Probation Lifted

Cotton Bowl Door Opens

NEW YORK (AP) — Southern Methodist University has an extra incentive in its battle with Texas A&M for the Southwest Conference football championship now that the National Collegiate Athletic Association has lifted its two-year probation of the Mustangs.

SMU now is eligible for the host role in the Cotton Bowl — a spot that traditionally goes to the SWC champion. And even if the Mustangs — now trailing A&M by one half game in the standings — fail to finish first, they'll probably get the Cotton Bowl bid anyway. The Aggies are still serving a probation that will bar them from postseason play unless it is lifted.

In other actions Tuesday, the NCAA slapped Bradley and Purdue with one-year probation for violations of its athletic codes. But neither action was accompanied by sanctions and thus both schools will still be eligible for bowl games.

That is particularly important to Purdue, tied for second in the Big Ten race. The Big Ten champ gets a bid to the Rose Bowl and first place Michigan State, which played in Pasadena last winter, is ineligible for a return trip — even if it wins the conference title.

SMU drew its two-year probation from the Southwest Conference in May, 1964 for football recruiting violations. The NCAA Council, which supported the SWC's action, now has reviewed the case and terminated the probation effective immediately.

The NCAA action against Bradley and Purdue was brought about by irregularities involving the basketball teams at each school. But the schools avoided sanctions which might have barred postseason play by reporting the violations voluntarily and taking steps to correct them.

The NCAA Council found that Bradley's head basketball coach had signed a bond and made an appropriate deposit guaranteeing the appearance of a Bradley University student-athlete in a court of law.

In the case of Purdue, the council found that a prospective student-athlete was provided a cost-free commercial airplane trip from his home to the University campus and return by a representative of the University's athletic interests, the representative failing to accompany the prospect.

Saturday Game Time Changed

Holy Name High School officials announced today that Saturday's game with Escanaba will be moved up to 1:30 because of the visit of Senator Robert F. Kennedy in Escanaba that day.

Junior varsity teams from the two schools will play Thursday at 3:45 at the Escanaba Athletic Field. Admission will be 25 cents for students and 50 cents for adults.

Great Northern Meeting Nov. 2

The fall meeting of the Great Northern Conference will be held Wednesday, Nov. 2, at the Dells Supper Club.

Conference coaches will select an all-conference team, on an all-opponent basis, and Menominee will be presented with the football championship trophy. Holy Name will host the meeting which will be presided over by John Butrymowicz, conference president and athletic director at Holy Name.

Bramer Bowls 708 Series In Gladstone Loop

GLADSTONE — Lew Bramer, veteran Ensign kiegler, powered his Blatz team to a three game sweep over the league leading Arcadia Inn team here Tuesday night with a 708 national honor count.

Bramer fired games of 278, 239 and 193 for the first 700 series of the season. His team won the match, 2790 pins to 2550.

The 278 singleton qualifies Bramer for the Century Club award as it tops his average by 100 pins. He will also receive a 700 series award.

The national honor count was his first in 30 years of bowling.

Menominee Rated Tops In Final Weekly Poll

Menominee, the lone undefeated team in the Upper Peninsula, captured the top spot in the final weekly poll conducted by the Upper Peninsula Sportswriters Association.

Coach Ken Hofer's Great Northern Conference champions drew 12 first place votes for 120 points. Calumet was ranked second with 105 points and Holy Name climbed a notch to the No. 3 position with 96 points.

Escanaba moved into the top 10 this week in a tie for 10th place with Marquette.

Rounding out the top 10 were Negaunee, Ironwood, Soo, St. Ignace, Iron River and L'Anse.

Other teams receiving votes included Gwinn, Ishpeming, Crystal Falls, Bessemer, Houghton, Lake Linden, Engadine and Stambaugh.

Although the U. P. season has one weekend of games remaining, this is the final poll of the season. Writers will hold their annual fall meeting Saturday, Nov. 5, at Crystal Falls to select the U. P. champion, All-U. P. players and coach of the year.

The top 10:

Ironwood	7	63

George Mathison of Chicago, former Gladstone resident, drops a note to inform friends in the area that the television showing of the 1966 World's Log Rolling Championships staged last summer at Hayward, Wis., is scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 29, on the ABC-TV Wide World of Sports. Mathison is secretary of the International Log Rolling Association.

Coach Ken Hofer's Menominee Maroons, rated No. 1 in the Upper Peninsula, are ranked ninth in this week's state Associated Press Class B poll. Other teams in the top 20 include Holy Name, Calumet, Negaunee, Ishpeming, Iron River and Ironwood in Class B, Sault Ste. Marie and Marquette in Class A, St. Ignace, Lake Linden, L'Anse, Gwinn, Soo, Lorette, Engadine, Houghton and DeFur in Class C-D.

Coach Rollie Dotch's Northern Michigan Wildcat football team has played before 77,000 fans in their seven games this season, an average draw of 11,000 per contest. Largest crowd to see Northern was in the Rubber Bowl at Akron Sept. 17, with an attendance of 40,168.

The Michigan Tech Huskies took advantage of two pass interceptions and a long distance punt return to spill favored Mankato, 27-7, last weekend. Quarterback Jay Diknow, former Iron Mountain prep athlete, broke Tech's all-time passing record in the game. Diknow has completed 150 aerials in his three-year career with two games to go. The former record was 147, established by Ralph Abata of Kingsford in 1960-63.

Bob Haralson of Lake Linden was the most accurate kicker in Upper Peninsula prep football ranks this season. Haralson connected on 13 of 15 extra point conversions and also booted a field goal to help the Whiz Kids to their 6-2 season record.

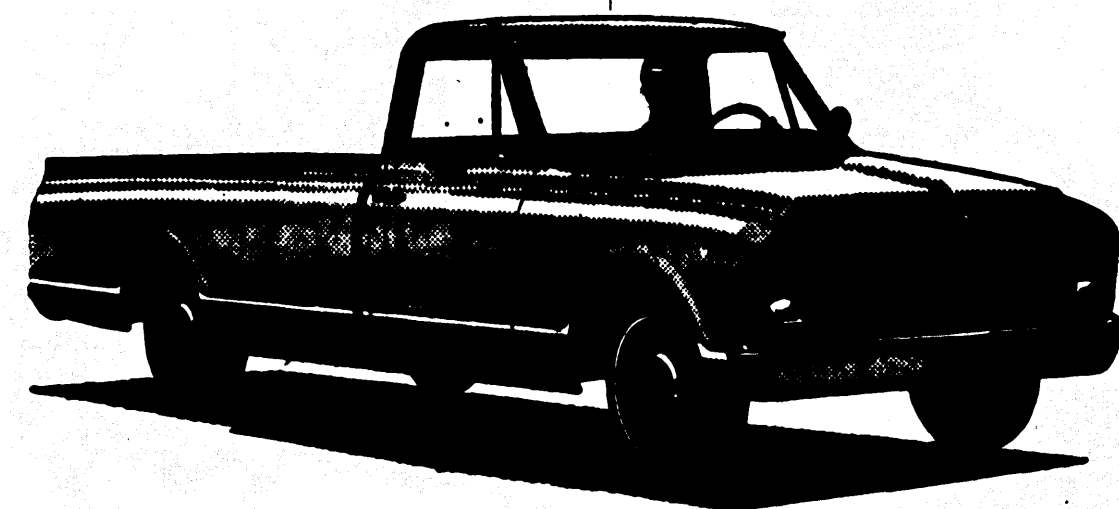

Pat Miller, Menominee's multi-talented junior tailback, scored two touchdowns and passed for a third to lead the Maroons to their 22-6 victory over Kingsford to clinch the Great Northern Conference championship. The 6 foot 3 inch, 155 pounder ignited the Maroons after the underdog Flivvers grabbed a 6-0 lead in the second quarter. Menominee scored two touchdowns in the final two minutes of action. The Maroons made a clean sweep of conference honors as the Jayvees capped the junior varsity crown with a 5-0-1 record this fall.

Paul Sharkey turned in another sensational performance to lead Marinette Catholic Central to a 27-21 victory over St. John's of Little Chute. Sharkey passed for two touchdowns, ran for another and set up the winning TD with a fumble recovery. The Cavaliers staged a remarkable comeback after trailing 21-7 late in the third quarter.

Gwinn closed out its most successful football season in history with a 26-6 victory over Marquette Baraga. The Model Towners won five of eight starts under Coach George McCormack this fall. All five victories came at home and the three defeats were suffered on the road. Bob Wheeler, Pete Castro, Andy Hines and Marv Williams scored the Gwinn touchdowns. Castro, an outstanding player last year, has been sidelined with an injury and made his first appearance this season against the Royals.

John Bennett, an unheralded junior tackle, was given a starting assignment by Coach Jerry Cvenogros in the Esky-Iron Mountain game last Saturday and responded with an almost unbelievable performance. The 5 foot 10 inch, 176 pounder was a one-man gang on defense, wrecking play after play for the stunned Mountaineers. In addition to a half dozen solo tackles, Bennett blocked two Iron Mountain punts, blocked an attempted kick for an extra point and recovered a fumble. For his extraordinary efforts, Bennett was a unanimous choice this week as Escanaba's outstanding player. To make the story even more remarkable, Bennett wasn't even listed on the roster for the Iron Mountain game.

Series Money

Hits New High

NEW YORK (AP) — The Los Angeles Dodgers, who three weeks ago established a fistful of World Series records they'd like to forget, have set another Series mark they can afford to remember.

The Dodgers, beaten in four straight games by the Baltimore Orioles and shut out over the last 33 innings, scored heavily Tuesday when the official distribution of series receipts was announced by Commissioner William D. Eckert's office.

Each full share for the Dodgers was worth $3,189.36, a record for Series losers. The Orioles' full shares were $11,653.04 — short of the record of $12,794 per-man set by Los Angeles in dividing the spoils of its 1963 sweep over the New York Yankees.

The total player pool was a record $1,044,042.65 but the Orioles, in voting 34 full shares and cutting in 47 persons, wound up with the second-best payoff per man in Series history. The Dodgers voted 29 full shares in 1963.

This year the Dodgers voted 34 full shares, breaking the losers' mark set by the 1963 Yankees, whose full shares amounted to $7,574.32 apiece.

Full shares for the Minnesota runner-up in the American League, and San Francisco, second in the National, amounted to $2,235.18 and $2,256.40, respectively.

EAST LANSING (AP) — Distressed by the kickoff returns of Purdue's Leroy Keyes—four for 119 yards—No. 2 ranked Michigan State worked on its kickoff play defenses Tuesday.

The undefeated Spartans, who meet Northwestern at Evanston, Ill., Saturday, also worked on protection for Dick Kenney, the punter and field goal kicker. Some attempted blocks on Kenney's kicks have come to close for comfort for the MSU coaches.

Halfback Dwight Lee, who was replaced by Dick Berlinski as a starter last week, was back with the first team.

Fullback Bob Apus, who strained a knee in the Purdue game, was running with the first team in practice and showing only a slight limp. He was expected to be ready for Saturday.

GM's Earnings At 5-Year Low

DETROIT (AP)—General Motors Corp. reported Tuesday its lowest quarterly earnings in five years—and the third straight three-month period that it lagged behind the pace it set in 1965.

The world's biggest manufacturing corporation said that in the three months ended Sept. 30 it earned $99.5 million, a far cry from the $261 million it chalked up in the same period a year ago.

The earnings were the lowest for the part of the auto makers since the $57.8 million it earned in the third quarter of 1961.

A big share of the $164.5 million drop in earnings was blamed by GM officials on the fact that people aren't buying GM vehicles the way they were a year ago.

GM said that in the first nine months of this year, car and truck buyers around the world purchased 4,850,351 GM vehicles—almost half a million fewer than were purchased in the first nine months last year.

The corporation took the biggest share of the beating in the third quarter, when sales were $76,000 vehicles worldwide, compared to 1,246,000 in last year's third quarter.

Frederic G. Donner, GM chairman, and James M. Roche, president, couched the report on the slump with predictions of a rocky future for GM.

Children Help Other Children

On Halloween, this year as in the past several years, boys and girls will go trick-or-treating in Escanaba to help other children through UNICEF, the United Nations Children's Fund.

Official UNICEF collection containers will identify the youngsters who are making the appeal for children in less privileged lands. The Trick-or-Treat for UNICEF began nationally back in 1950 by a small Sunday School group which collected $17.

Last year the collections totaled a gift of $2,500,000 to aid the world's needy children.

The appeal in this area is organized by the Escanaba Council of United Church Women, headed by Mrs. Walter Bjorkquist, and the churches participating in the local UNICEF program are the Central Methodist, Bethany Lutheran, Immanuel Lutheran, Bark River Methodist, and the First Methodist. Last year the children collected $80.52 and they hope to exceed that sum this year.

UNICEF won the coveted Nobel Peace award last year for its 20 years of life-saving work among children in more than 10 countries.

Noting the good that trick-or-treat gifts bring, the Board of United Church Women said that each penny will mean six glasses of milk, five cents buys penicillin to cure two children of yaws, an ugly and crippling tropical disease, and 10 cents provides antibiotics to save a child suffering from trachoma from total blindness.

The slogan is: "Help Children help children."
